

HAPPY MONEY

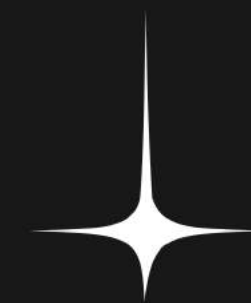

@MARIAHFONTANA

Who wants to make
10, 20, 50, 100k+ per month?

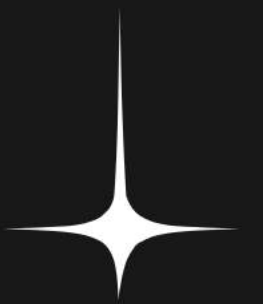

Who wants to make
10, 20, 50, 100k+ per month
while happy?

Why are you truly here?

- to learn how to make more money?
- to have a mental breakthrough?
- to be in a new community that just 'gets it'?

Why are you truly here?

- WHY do you want more money?
- WHY do you need a mental breakthrough?
- WHY do you need a new community?

Your reasons all come from emotional drivers;
whether you know it or not

Do Not Disturb

Instead of always searching for the 'key' or the 'one thing I need to do' to hit 20k/m

You should be asking:
'HOW DO I BECOME THE VERSION OF MYSELF CAPABLE OF MAKING &
SUSTAINING 20K/MONTH'

My first goal when I joined PTDOM in Dec 2020 was 10k

Then 15k, then 20k, then 30 and 50k and the big ass 100k/m

But it wasn't until I flipped my life upside down in 2023, ended a 7yr relationship, started doing breathwork, more mediation and inner work on myself than id ever done..

that I finally asked, why do I want that?

I never gave myself the opportunity to ask 'why' because I was unconsciously chasing 'safety' for the last 4-6yrs (or my entire life) in 2017 I dropped out of uni, lived in my boyfriends parents house, tree planted, lived the ski-bum life, and barely got by

I was in thousands of depth and felt like I was always broke (could always afford 1-2 bottles of wine on the weekend though)

Money truly was the SOLUTION at the time

More Money = Safety

But once I got the money, I still had the same problems...

I didnt realize that at the time:

- keeping myself busy chasing numbers meant I was too busy to deal with the problems in my relationship
- chasing numbers fed my ego as being one of the highest earners in the program
- earning that much money kept a shield of protection not to have to ever rely on anyone because Id been burned in the past

April '2022

April '2024

I made more money in April 2022 than
April 2024

Money is an emotional bandaid

Band-aids don't fix wounds that need stitches

Ask yourself again...

What emotion am I trying to create by having more money?

When you begin to understand the emotions you seek...

You begin to understand the power they have over you & your decision making

The Emotion

Power

Safety

Your desire to create safety within you by making money has more authority over you than your desire to be financially free

money = power & safety

so what happens when you have a low month?

bye bye power & safety

money & your business become all of you

your emotions, power, and safety are all attached to it which actually takes away
ALL of your power

'I do stuff for my biz as soon as I get up, I think about my biz always, I AM my biz'

Sooo what happens when you have a shit month in biz if you ARE your biz?

'Im shit'

Your identity cannot be tied to your business and how much money
you make

You business is an EXTENSION of you,
not ALL of you

Energetic Strings

OUT vs. IN

WTF DOES THIS HAVE TO DO WITH MAKING MORE MONEY MARIAH?

The How:

Become aware of your reasons 'why', the emotions you think you'll receive and the power it holds over you

Its a daily practice...

This is going to take TIME and A LOTTTTT of inner work

A lot of peeling back the layers of who you are or the character you've created for yourself (power, safety)

But who are you really? What's beneath the surface that is driving you to create this business and to be 'successful'?

MON 8:27 PM

Didn't realise it would be so hard to find a pic to show you what I'm thinking 🥰🥰 But like this ...

You may have not been willing to go there because beneath the surface is darkness....

‘Sometimes the dark is all-consuming. It reaches for you, wraps its arms around you, and pulls you into the shadows.
It's easy to stay there. To be all consumed in it. You may not even realize that you're there. You've fallen back into your subconscious patterns. But all you need is awareness.
Awareness of who you're becoming, once again. A snap, a shake, a glance from someones eyes directly to yours, to pull you back into the light.’

‘Love and Light’* didnt help me make more money but it did help me....

- heal a broken heart
- realize what was truly important to me
- discover parts of myself I closed off for years
- become fully ‘ME’ with unshakeable confidence
- a better, badass leader
- the woman you see today

So when I was ready to turn on the drive & grind again, I was doing it from a place of authenticity, not because I needed to survive

And I hit my record month of 67K
...HAPPY

Not only Happy, I LIVED and living doesn't mean lazy, it means working smart

1. what emotion do you think your goal income will bring you? Create that feeling within you
